Scan for the Spotify playlist with all 28 songs

Print it, fold it, and leave two or three copies beside the microphone.

The song list on the next page is the whole evening at a glance, so guests circle what they want to sing and hand it back to whoever is running the music.

Each song then gets its own page: the title, the year, and space to write in the lines everyone always forgets, plus room for a duet partner's name.
